Spotlighters Announce New Season to Celebrate 30 Years of Entertainment

Barron Spotlighters will kick off its blockbuster 30th anniversary celebration with special presentations of a play written by a Barron native and former Spotlighter actor, Paul Kluge. "Final Intrusion" will be presented in September.

The rest of the season will be devoted to bringing back "the good old days" by featuring shows from another, simpler era, including the very first play Spotlighters ever performed, Neil Simon's "Prisoner of Second Avenue". Some of you may remember seeing this play on the stage at the old courthouse. The entire 2008-2009 program is as follows:

Final Intrusion (see synopsis below in auditions article)

Performance dates September 11, 12, 13, 14, 2008

High Society - a musical

Performance dates October 16, 17, 18, 24, 25, 26, 2008

This is a musical remake of the classic comedy, "The Philadelphia Story". It is a tale of romance, mistaken identities and mischief. It ends with the heroine falling.....in LOVE. This play takes you back to a simpler time when a love story was just that - a love story. Comic action and fabulous Cole Porter music will please all audiences.

Prisoner of Second Avenue

Performance dates January 22, 23, 24, 30, 31 and February 1, 2009

Neil Simon's popular comedies examine tensions that arise between men and women. This is a play about a couple struggling to survive city life, noisy neighbors, faulty plumbing and loss of employment. This funny play takes a grave subject and treats it with sympathetic humor.

Life With Father

Performance dates April 16, 17, 18, 24, 25, 26, 2009

Set in the late 19th Century, "Father", a Wall Street broker, thinks he runs his home, but finds that it is really his wife who is in charge. They struggle when she discovers that he has not been baptized and insists that he must be. Lots of drama and laughs.

Awards Banquet to be Held at Foursquare Church

Medals and plaques will be awarded at a special banquet at the Foursquare Church in Barron on Saturday, June 14, 2008.

Gathering will begin at 5:00 p.m. with dinner at 6:00 p.m. Awards will be given for best show, best lead male actor, best lead female actor, best male supporting actor, best female supporting actor, best actor in a minor role and people's choice for each play. A special community award will be presented as well as a $300 scholarship to a student who will be furthering his/her education.

The price for the banquet is $3 per person. Families are invited. Reservations can be made by E-Mail (spotlighters@chibardun.net) or by calling Spotlighters at 537-9212.

Audition for "Final Intrusion"

Auditions for Barron Spotlighters' special production of "Final Intrusion", written by local playwright and actor, Paul Kluge, will be held at the BACC on Friday, June 6, from 6:00-8:30 p.m. and Saturday, June 7, from 10:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m.

There are roles for 5 women and 4 men ranging in age from the early '20's through the late '60's. For additional information, E-mail auditions@barronspotlighters.org or call 537-9212

Show dates are Thursday, September 11 - Saturday, September 13 at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday, September 14 at 2:00 p.m.

The show is a drama/mystery/comedy. Crime takes no holiday, even on Memorial Day - even in a fresh little Upper Midwest city like Eau Claire, Wisconsin. This garden-variety break-in should be easy work for our detective and lady cop, but the intruder turns up dead. Who was he, why was he there and who killed him? It takes a mighty fine detective to figure it all out.

FRIDAY NIGHT SANDWICH

Mix together in a bowl:

1 small can crab meat 1 small can mushrooms
2 celery sticks, chopped fine 1 tsp. caraway seed
4 whole green onions, chopped Sour cream or mayo

Make sure you have on hand:

4 slices bread 4 slices cheddar cheese
8 slices bacon

When it's cooking time, fry and drain the bacon and toast the bread on one side only. (I grill it) Spread the crabmeat mix on the untoasted side, cover with bacon, top with a slice of cheese. Heat under broiler until cheese melts.
